AGRIPRENEURAL TRAINING PROGRAMME

CMS College, Kottayam, took to develop add on courses that have to be conducted by each department for their students, in the academic year 2019-20

The Department of Commerce (SF) chose the topic of "Agripreneural Training Programme" for the students of first year. On 26th November 2019, under the initiative of Dr. Samkutty George, HOD and the faculty members, Agripreneural Training Program a very educative value added course was inaugurated.

The programme commenced with a melodious prayer song by Ms. Shini Mariam and Ms. Sandra Jacob (first year students). The welcome speech was presented by Mrs. Saino Anish (faculty, Department of Commerce (S.F)), It was accompanied by lighting the lamp. The presidential speech was delivered by Dr. Samkutty George, HOD. The inaugural ceremony was officially inaugurated by honorable chief guest Mrs. Jancy K Koshy, Deputy Director of Agriculture Department, Government of India. She delivered an impressive speech on the topic "Prospects of Agri-business" and shared her ideas and views. Her speech creates a great motivation among students and she raised different issues that we face today like the various aspects of food industry, farm industry and entrepreneurship.

On conclusion of her speech, on behalf of the faulty members as well as students of B.Com (SF), a small token of gratitude was presented. The session was ended by 4.00pm.

SEMINAR

MUSHROOM AND APICULTURE CULTIVATION

On 13th December 2019, B.Com self financing department conducted a seminar on Mushroom and Apiculture Cultivation which was organized by Dr. Samkutty George, HOD, Department of Commerce (SF) as a part of value added course. In this seminar, all the first year students took part.

The HOD of Department of Commerce (SF), Dr. Samkutty George introduced the Add on course and its objectives to the students. He also introduced the resource persons, Dr. Jobin Mathew (HOD, Department of zoology), Dr. Nisha P Aravind (Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology) and Mr. Sajith K.P. (Faculty, Department of Zoology). The seminar began with a prayer song by Sandra Jacob and Aleena A Kurien. It was followed by a welcome speech by Athira Shaji, who quoted few lines from E.W.Stewart, "Agriculture was the first occupation of man, and as it embraces the whole earth, it is the foundation of other industries."

In the first session of the seminar, Mr. Sajith (Faculty, Department of Zoology) talked at length on mushroom cultivation, its life cycle and various types of mushrooms.

Dr. Nisha P Aravind (Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology) spoke on cultivation of mushroom in our houses and presented a video of a successful mushroom cultivation and about the mushroom cultivated in Zoology department.

The second session was handled by Dr. Jobin Mathew (HOD, Department of zoology) who provided valuable informations regarding the Apiculture cultivation i.e., bee hiving. He gave a demonstration of various steps that are to be taken while bee hiving.

For the third session, after the lunch, the students were taken to Zoology department for practical lessons. In this session they showed how mushrooms are cultivated and the various process of bee hiving.

The programme was organized with the support of the HOD, Dr. Samkutty George and other faculty members of Department of Commerce (SF). The seminar was indeed a great success

PRACTICAL SESSION

On 18th December 2019, the first year students of Department of Commerce (SF) were taken to the Department of Zoology by value added course coordinator Mrs. Elsa Daniel (Faculty, Department of Commerce).

Firstly, students visited "Advanced Centre For Extension Research Training in Zoology". The students were guided by Dr. Nisha P Aravind (Assistant Professor, Department of zoology). She showed the students the cultivation of button mushroom and the preparation of compost for the same. She also explained the cost of production, its maintenance procedures etc. Two of the students from the group volunteered to help her in the process.

After this the students were taken to the backyard of the department where the apiary was situated and Dr. Jobin Mathew (HOD, Department of zoology), showed the students honey bee farming or apiculture. He explained how the man made bee colonies are maintained every day. The apiary consisted of 5 to 6 colonies. He explained the process of extracting honey from the frames and also invited the students to touch and feel the frames. He explained about the size of the frame, the number of colonies in each frame, types of honey etc.

Both mushroom cultivation and apiculture were extremely informative and beneficial to the students.

EXTENSION WORK

As a part of the value added course "Agripreneurial Training Programme", the first year students of Department of Commerce (SF) were given the chance to visit Krishi Vigyan Kendra (KVK) and Regional Agriculture Research Station (RARS) , Kumarakom and the students were highly enlightened on many things, on how to grow and nurture plants in future.

The KVK provided seeds to the students as part of an extension work. For the extension activity, the boys of both the first year classes were divided into 4 groups and seeds were given to them. Ten seeds packet were given to each group and the students went and distributed the seeds to the families and explained to them, how they should nurture the seeds.

The extension work was of a great experience to the students and implanted in them an aptitude for growing and cultivating vegetables at home.
