Discussions and deliberations:

Agenda 1.

Implementation of the Four Year Under Graduate Programme

Dr. Joji John Panicker gave a brief introduction to the proposed FYUGP system that needed to be implemented in the coming academic year. He said that the programme framework was still under discussion at MG University. However, the syllabus for the FYUGP courses would be brought out by the university tentatively by the 15th of December, 2023. Simultaneously, the workload issues that may affect teachers were also being considered by the university authorities. The PG curriculum had to be revised in accordance with the new UG curriculum.

Dr. Anju Sosan George took an elaborate session, as a PowerPoint presentation, on the FYUGP regulations and its implementation process.

Mr. Arun Varghese Thomas raised the concern as to how the FYUGP implementation would affect the self-financing courses to which Dr. Anju replied that such matters were still be considered and discussed at the higher level.

No other matters arose from the floor. Dr. Clint Peter Roy proposed the vote of thanks.

The meeting came to an end by 4.00 pm.
