PREFACE

‘The College Cotym’ which later came to be known as CMS College Kottayam, was established in the year 1817 by the Church Missionary Society, England at the initiative of Colonel Munro, the then Diwan and with the patronage of the Royal Family of Travancore. In its early years, the curriculum included the study of Mathematics, History, and Geography, besides English, Malayalam, Sanskrit and Syriac.

Since its inception, the College has been a torch bearer in the area of higher education, not only as a centre of ‘knowledge dissemination’ but also as a centre of ‘knowledge creation’. Rev. Benjamin Bailey, the father of the printing in Kerala, was the first principal of the College. He established the first printing press in the state in 1821 and designed the present round-shaped Malayalam font. He formulated the middle path Malayalam prose style which is the forerunner of modern Malayalam prose. He is also credited with bringing out the first dictionary in Malayalam, a bi-lingual Malayalam – English dictionary, titled ‘A Dictionary of High and Colloquial Malayalam and English’ in 1846.

In 1857, when the University system started in India, the College was affiliated to the University of Madras. ‘The Cotym College Quarterly’, the first college magazine in South India was published by the College in 1864. The college was later affiliated to Travancore University in 1937, then to Kerala University and finally to Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam in 1983. In 2014, the College was reaccredited by National Assessment and Accreditation Council with A Grade and 3.27 GPA. It is recognized as a College with Potential for Excellence by the UGC and is conferred with Special Heritage status. In the year 2016, the UGC granted the status of academic autonomy for the college.

Luminaries like Dr. K. R. Narayanan, former President of India, Sri. K. P. S. Menon, former Indian Ambassador to the U. S. S. R., Padmavibhooshan Dr. George Sudarshan, the world renowned Physicist, Padmabhooshan Kavalam Narayana Panicker, Padmabhooshan Justice K. T. Thomas, Film Directors John Abraham, Aravindan, Jayaraj etc are some of the illustrious alumni of the College.

The college started its bicentenary celebrations in 2016. The President of India, Sri. Pranab Mukherjee inaugurated the bicentenary programmes on 6th February, 2016. Various schemes and programmes were introduced and executed as part of the celebrations. The valedictory function of the bicentenary was held on 2nd September 2019. The Most Rev. and Right Honourable Justin Welby, the Archbishop of Canterbury was the guest of honour.

From The PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Where The Mind Is Without Fear
Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high
Where knowledge is free
Where the world has not been broken up into fragments
By narrow domestic walls
Where words come out from the depth of truth
Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection
Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way
Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit
Where the mind is led forward by thee
Into ever-widening thought and action
Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake.

These famous lines from Rabindranath Tagore's Gitanjali remind us of the essence of education. It reminds us of knowledge that is limitless which has to be chiseled into wisdom, integrity and truth. At CMS College Kottayam, we hope that along with the knowledge gained during the course of study here, the student would see himself or herself as an individual with strong morals, understand social and personal commitments, and be a responsible citizen of the country.

I wish you success in everything you do.

Warmest regards,

Dr. Anju Sosan George

Principal in charge
